DISCUSSION TOPICS

1. Future Meeting Agenda Review.

The Executive Committee and the General Manager reviewed and discussed the October 26, 2021, and November 9, 2021 board meeting agendas. Ms. Cerri stated since the two meetings were two weeks apart, she was considering canceling the October meeting and moving the agenda items to the November meeting if agreed. The discussion on the October agenda included the following; special recognition of retiring employee, which will be moved to the December 14, 2021 board meeting agenda. Under the consent calendar, the following items were reaffirming the resolution authorizing virtual board and committee meetings, approval of meeting minutes, and acceptance of Blue Jay Deck Improvements Project 217 and Manhole Inflow Reduction 2021 Project 225. Information items were the departmental reports. Under action items was the purchase of the 2-way radio equipment. There was a potential lease agreement for the closed session. All of the items she reviewed could be held over two weeks. On the November agenda, under the consent calendar, was the approval of meeting minutes, and under information items were the departmental reports. Ms. Cerri provided an update on the District Corporation Yard stating that the Conditional Use Permit (CUP) was approved, the grading permit will take two months to receive, and steel prices were down. There will be an update on the Cease and Desist Order. She noted no inflow and infiltration in the Palisades area where the sewer was restored, which would be included in the report. Under action items was the Annual Financial Report and the Auditors will report on the financials, the annual revision to the Investment Policy, a salary survey required by the MSCEU Memorandum of Understanding contract to be completed by March 2022, and the purchase of fleet vehicles. Under closed session was an update on the City of Hesperia case. The Executive Committee agreed to cancel the October Board meeting and the November Executive Committee meeting. She informed the Committee that she had a vacation day scheduled on December 6, 2021, which fell on the day of the Executive Committee meeting. A brief discussion regarding moving the meeting or having John O'Brien fill in for Ms. Cerri. John O'Brien will sit in for Ms. Cerri.

2. General Managers Comments.

Ms. Cerri did not have any additional comments.
